A cordial welcome will be given to all who will attend upon these means of grace.

ODD FELLOWS' SUPPER.—Expecting that a number of the brethren from the back country, would be in this city yesterday, to attend the meeting of the stockholders of the Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, to entertain them, gave a magnificent supper last night, at the "Summer Garden." The members looked for from abroad, however, did not visit the city, so the supper was enjoyed by the members of Potomac Lodge, and some of the members of Sarcopa Lodge. About ten o'clock, a company numbering in the neighborhood of fifty, sat down to a sumptuously prepared table, at which wit, anecdote and song, abounded, until half past eleven, when the party adjourned, having spent a most delightful evening.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—The Georgetown City Council, yesterday, passed resolutions "requesting the Mayor to communicate with the Legislature of Maryland, and urge upon that body the enactment of such laws as shall put the control of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal under such permanent management as shall insure the security and benefit of those holding the securities of the said company, in which the State of Maryland has so large an interest, and fully develop its immense power for good to those interested in it. A copy of the resolutions to be sent to the Governor of Maryland. The object seems to be to have a management not affected by political changes in the State."

THE RIVER.—A heavy fog has prevailed to-day. The river is almost clear of ice—the channel only being filled with floating cakes, which are being rapidly carried off. The steamer Kennebec, left here this morning, at eleven o'clock for Baltimore, not to stop at any of the river landings. The Washington boats are running, but with some irregularity. A good deal of drift wood is coming down the river, but very little escapes the wreckers who are out in numbers.

THE MARKET. this morning, was tolerably well supplied. Beef from 18 to 20 cts. per lb.; real 20 cts.; and mutton, and pork at previous rates. Turkeys were selling at 20 cts. per lb. Chickens from 50 cts. to $1 a piece. Eggs 35 a 40 cts. per dozen. Butter from 35 to 45 cts. per lb. Celery 5 cts. per small bunch. Potatoes 33 cts. per peck. Parsnips from 20 to 30 cts. per peck. Cressess 20 cts. per peck. No fre-h fish in market this morning.

CITY COUNCIL.—There was a called meeting of the City Council last night. The Board of Aldermen rescinded a resolution adopted by them on the 12th inst., in relation to the suspension of the collection of taxes on property used by the U. S. Government during the war. There was no quorum present of the Common Council.

CORRECTION.—In the official proceedings of the Board of Aldermen, published in Wednesday's Gazette, the salary of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department was erroneously stated at $500. It should have been five dollars.

The Secretary of the Navy has as yet received no advices from the United States steamer Swatara, having on board Surritt. The vessel is daily expected, however, and may arrive at any moment.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, yesterday, the Senate bill for the relief of Mrs. Mary Jane Dixon, of Alexandria, widow of the late Turner Dixon, was reported on adversely, and laid on the table.

SOUP HOUSE.—No soup was issued from the Soup House to-day, in consequence of the want of material, and the many applicants there, went away unsatisfied and hungry.

SHAD are offered for sale, (brought from the South,) in the Baltimore market at from $5 to $10 per pair—"the sale not very ready." Hold on, for a few days! Wait for the Potomac!

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Mr. Philip R. Randall was yesterday relieved of his pocket book, containing $700 in money, and some valuable papers, while on one of the avenue cars, somewhere between Seventh and Fifteenth streets. We notice with regret the increasing and dangerous illness of Professor A. Dallas Baché, the chief of the Coast Survey. Mr. Elijah Edmonston, an Alderman of the city, died yesterday. Several arrests of thieves were made yesterday.

In the rotunda of the Capitol is a picture by Thomas Noble, called the Slave Market at New Orleans. It attracts a great deal of attention. Thaddeus Stevens has been quite sick, but has recovered his health.

Forrest, the actor, is to commence an engagement, in Washington, on Monday night. Rev. J. Johnson, (Eumegabab) a Chippewa Indian, and a regularly ordained minister of the Episcopal Church, will take part in the monthly missionary service at Christ Church, Navy Yard, to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, the 17th. He is laboring as a missionary to his own people at Mille Lac, in the diocese of Minnesota, and will make an appeal on behalf of that work.

IMPORTANT TO CANDIDATES.

[Reported for the Alexandria Gazette.]
Mirabile dictu! Rejoice, oh people of Alexandria! and shake off "your guilty fears" oh ye candidates, for the Union Republican association of Alexandria, have, in solemn convocation, gravely decided that they wont nominate candidates, and wont vote at the approaching municipal election! (The chair announced that there were about fifty members—all told—black and white.)

The grave and important conclusion, given above, was arrived at as follows: It had been announced, and with a considerable flourish of trumpets, that the great new "apostle of liberty"—Hamilton, "formerly of Texas," would vouchsafe his presence here for the purpose of enlightening the souls in this benighted region, and with that intent, would speak at Lyceum Hall last night. It was said that there would doubtless be a large crowd to greet the distinguished luminary—but at 7 1/2 o'clock only thirty of the association were present, four spectators and four colored persons, but no Hamilton; and at 8 o'clock, four of the members having retired, disappointed and disgusted, and the spectators exhibiting signs of restlessness, the presiding officer ascended the rostrum, and announced, in measured accents, that on account "of indisposition arising from cold contracted, and the breaking of two ribs, some time ago, and the inclemency of the weather, Mr. Hamilton would not be present with them to-night"—in the flesh at least. He further stated that there was no secretary: whereupon E. M. Janney was proposed, and with becoming modesty desired to decline, but finally accepted the position. After this there was a solemn pause for a few moments, when Benjamin W. Hunter, no longer to fame unknown, arose, and amid the most profound silence, read his resolution, the purport of which is given in the first paragraph of this article, and which will doubtless cause a decided sensation—though it was received by the association with dignified silence. There was a preamble to the resolution, which sets forth that, "whereas we are in an insignificant minority," made so by State Legislation, &c., &c.—the same old story—therefore we wont have any candidates at the approaching municipal election, and wont vote. Oh!! Just think of it!

Mr. Henly, who always has something to say, apparently approved of the resolution, but the insignificant, in the preamble, excited his Celtic ire, and he therefore denied the "soft impeachment," and moved to strike out the word "insignificant." Silence ensued, and there was no second to the motion to strike out. Mr. Hunter refused to accept the amendment, stating that it was a fact "that we are insignificant, and will continue so until the colored people have the right of suffrage." [Silence.]

There was a faint call for the question, which being taken on the adoption of the preamble and resolution, the association voted itself insignificant, and positively decided not to vote at the ensuing municipal election. (Candidates will please take notice accordingly, and thus save any extra politeness and extra treating.) After the adoption of this grave and serious measure, there was a long pause, and death-like silence prevailed, until Mr. Tucker, (Geo.) proposed that the constitution—of the association—should be read, which, after another pause, was done. Then all who had not signed were requested to hand in their names, but there was no response to the invitation, and the dullness was getting unbearable when the presiding officer announced that a motion to adjourn would be in order. It was considered that it would not do to repeat the attempt at another meeting as soon as Friday night next, so, upon motion, the association adjourned for two weeks.

ROBBERY.—The Police officers were on the lookout this morning for a man named David Smith, who was charged with stealing fifty-five dollars from a countryman named Moore.
